INTERFERENCE WITH CUSTODY (OF CHILD) (RSA 633:4 II, a A Mis)

This arrest was the result of an investigation initiated by Concord PD on August 14, 2015. On that date it was reported to Detectives that an Emergency Ex-Parte Order had been issued by the Concord Family Court directing Breanne to return her two children (ages 4 & 3) to their biological father. This order was issued on August 11, 2015. As of August 14th the father reported to police he had not seen or heard from Breanne or the two children in approximately two weeks.

"Community Committed"

Police Officers and Detectives from Concord PD conducted checks of all known locations that Breanne might frequent and could not locate her. Members of Breanne's family were also contacted. Some family members reported hearing from Breanne; however, did not know of her location. There were no indications that the children were in danger; however, it was believed that Breanne was actively avoiding both police and family in an attempt keep the children from their father.

Detectives eventually developed information that Breanne was in the Littleton, NH area. On August 26, 2015 detectives from Concord PD obtained an arrest warrant for Breanne for Interference with Custody (x2).

The Concord Police requested the assistance of the United States Marshals Fugitive Task Force which responded to the Littleton area on September 1, 2015 to try and locate Breanne and the children. Within a few hours Deputy U.S. Marshals located Breanne at an address in Bethlehem, NH. Shortly thereafter, and with the assistance of the Bethlehem Police Department, Breanne was taken into custody. The children were located with Breanne and later turned over to their father.

Breanne was transported to Concord PD where she was processed. She was released on $4,000 personal recognizance bail and is scheduled to be arraigned at the 6th Circuit – District Division – Concord (Concord District Court) on October 19, 2015.

The Concord Police Department would like to thank the United States Marshals Service and the Bethlehem Police Department with their assistance in this matter.
